

The Tin Music and Arts

Website accessibility statement thetinmusicandarts.org.uk is run by The Tin Music and Arts. We want as many people as possible to be able to access and use this website without obstacles.

Website accessibility

The Tin Music and Arts is committed to keeping our website and digital materials up to the standards of the Equality Act \(2010\) and Web Content Accessibility Guidelines.

Whilst browsing, you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard

- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader

We aim to make sure that our website is accessible on both desktop and mobile devices.

Alternative text and captions

Where applicable, all images on this website feature alternative text or captions that can be detected by a screen reader.

Some historical images or documents may not be accessible or able to relay information clearly. You can request all information on this website in alternative formats.

External links

The Tin Music and Arts mostly sells tickets for events held at the Coal Vaults and Community Space through TicketWeb. Each event page on The Tin Music and Arts' website has an external link to TicketWeb. If you are unable to purchase tickets on TicketWeb due to access requirements, please contact Sarah Morgan at sarah@thetinmusicandarts.org.uk to buy your tickets by other means.

Contact information and support

If you require information on this website to be made available in other formats such as large print, Word document or audio recording, or cannot find the information you need, please email Robin Jax at robin@thetinmusicandarts.org.uk.